

BACK-OF-HOUSE

SOCIAL MEDIA HELPER

ABOUT THIS JOB

Supported by your Support Worker, you will film and photograph what goes on at ESports Collective and help turn it into posts. We never put customers or participants online, staff only. You shoot the room, the gear and the games, then pick the few seconds worth keeping. Most of what you film never gets used, and checking every frame for faces is the slow part. We will teach you everything you need to know.

WHAT YOU DO

- » Film short clips of the room, the gear and the games
- » Photograph the venue before anyone is in it
- » Check every shot for faces before it goes anywhere
- » Cut the best bits into a post with your worker
- » Write the words that go with the pictures

WHY THIS JOB MAY SUIT YOU

- » You like being behind the camera
- » You notice what looks good
- » You would rather watch than join in
- » You can stick to a rule that matters
- » You already film or edit for yourself
- » You want experience for your resume
