

BACK-OF-HOUSE

STOCK MANAGER

ABOUT THIS JOB

Supported by your Support Worker, you will keep the shelves and the fridge full. You check what is there, work out what is running low, order some of it online and go out and buy the rest. It is a job you pick up as you go, and the venue runs on it. As ESports Collective grows, you get a say in what we start stocking. Most of it you will have picked up by your second or third shift.
