

FRONT-OF-HOUSE

MEET & GREET HELPER

ABOUT THIS JOB

Supported by your Support Worker, you will show new people around the place you already know. When a family or a support coordinator comes to look, you walk them through it and tell them what really happens here. The rest of the shift you help sessions start on time, and you are in the room joining in, same as always. Same room, same people. The difference is you are the one helping it run.

WHAT YOU DO

- » Show new families and coordinators around
- » Tell them what a session is really like
- » Help sessions start and finish on time
- » Make sure new people get settled in
- » Join in with the group the rest of the time

WHY THIS JOB MAY SUIT YOU

- » You are here for the sessions anyway
- » You are happy talking to new people
- » You like making people feel welcome
- » You do not mind saying it all again
- » You want to try peer support work
- » You want experience for your resume
