

GAME HOST

CHESS

ABOUT THIS JOB

Supported by your Support Worker, you will run chess at ESports Collective. You set the boards up, teach the moves to anyone who is new, and put people against someone near their own level so the games stay close. Chess here is quiet work, mostly one player at a time across a board. You do not need a rating or an opening memorised. You need to explain a move without making the person across from you feel small.

WHAT YOU DO

- » Set the boards up before the session starts
- » Teach the moves to anyone new to the game
- » Put players against someone near their level
- » Run the clock when the players want one
- » Reset the boards and pack down at the end

WHY THIS JOB MAY SUIT YOU

- » You know how the pieces move
- » You can explain something twice
- » You want one player at a time
- » You do not mind a quiet room
- » You like a slow game, not a fast one
- » You want experience for your resume
